Course: English Language
For: LM-58 and LM-17
A.A.: 2019-20
Teacher: Jessica Migliorelli
E-mail address: jessica.migliorelli@uniroma1.it
Prerequisite: intermediate level (B1)

Objectives

The aim of the course is to provide students with the practice necessary in order to acquire academic writing, speaking and reading comprehension skills.

Articles from different sources (e.g. CNN, BBC, National Geographic, The Times) will be analyzed so as to present grammar, language structures, vocabulary, collocations and other aspects of language related to English in real linguistic contexts. Throughout the course, some aspects of English pronunciation will also be dealt with.

Classes

Watching the video lessons/videoconferencing is not compulsory, although highly recommended.

If you have a valid B2 (or a higher level) language certificate recognized by MIUR, you will not need to take the exam, but if you wish to increase your knowledge of English, you are strongly advised to take advantage of the course.

Exam

The final exam will be written and it will be based on the material (the news articles and the linguistic aspects) considered during the course. Those who wish to present a valid English language certificate (level B2 or higher) will still need to book for an upcoming exam date. Before booking, you need to send me an e-mail with a scan of the certificate.
